Dr. Byte Issues a Prescription for Success

Dr. Byte USA is a privately held manufacturer of innovative Desk Accessories, File Storage, Clothing Care, and Computer Accessories. Trading Partner Compliance, a common ailment facing most US manufacturers, was remedied quickly by implementing vSync's EDI for Great Plains and Remote Warehouse.

Staples, Home Depot, and Office Max are just a few of Dr. Bytes retailers. With manufacturing facilities in New York, Israel, and China and distribution centers in Los Angeles and New York, Dr. Byte needed a workable solution that could quickly and easily help Dr. Byte to manage the operations of the business while adhering to his customer's unique supply chain requirements.

"vSync's EDI for Great Plains and Remote Warehouse was the only product we considered," said Moti Dover, President of Dr. Byte. "Their knowledge of eCommerce, implementation, and reputation for great service made them our only choice. We are extremely happy with the support they have provided us."

Dr. Byte USA is the fastest growing manufacturer of desk accessories and file storage in the US. They are an established supplier to the US retail, office superstore, commercial and warehouse club channels while at the same time, serve channels in Europe, Canada, Mexico, and South America.

"We're on plan this year to increase the number of SKUs by 50%," said Dover. "It was imperative that whatever solution we chose was tightly integrated to our Great Plains system, and could be implemented with limited disruption to our business. vSync has enabled us to accomplish this, plus, we've streamlined order processing and increased efficiency. We will be able to continually add trading partners which will continue to drive down costs and increase efficiencies for the health of our business."

Solutions you can count on.
